

INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION INSTITUTE SEMINAR SERIES

Hilary term 2017 Wednesdays, 1-2pm

Seminar Room 3, ODID, 3 Mansfield Road, Oxford OX1 3TB

© Hella Nijssen

Migration to, through and from Africa: An African conversation

- 18 January Skilled Ghanaian return migrants navigating the gendered politics of 'adjustment'
Madeleine Wong (St. Lawrence University)
- 25 January Migratory flows, colonial encounters and the histories of transatlantic slavery
Olivette Otele (Bath Spa University)
- 1 February African migration to and from Europe: Rethinking circular migration
Antony Otieno Ong'ayo (University of Utrecht and Tilburg University)
- 8 February The politics of Congolese Combattants' violent transnational mobilisation
Peter Kankonde Bukasa (University of the Witwatersrand and University of Notre Dame)
- 15 February Transnational religious practices and negotiation of difference among Zimbabwean Catholics in Britain
Dominic Pasura (University of Glasgow)
- 22 February Migration, family and the changing significance of absence in Senegal
Hélène Neveu Kringelbach (University College London)
- 1 March 'All the money I raised, I raised from Ghana': Understanding reverse remittance practice among Ghanaian migrants in the UK and their relatives in Ghana
Geraldine Adiku (University of Oxford)
- 8 March The subjective wellbeing of African transnational parents in Europe
Bilisuma B. Dito (Maastricht University)

For further information visit www.imi.ox.ac.uk/events or contact:
Robtel Neajai Pailey e. robtel.pailey@qeh.ox.ac.uk t. 01865 281 735
Marie Godin e. marie.godin@qeh.ox.ac.uk t. 01865 271 901

International
Migration
Institute

IMI

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD